Joke of the Month

You Know Your Getting Old When:

You know all the answers but nobody asks you any questions.

You get winded playing checkers.

You needed a fire permit to light all of your birthday candles and you need oxygen after blowing out the candles.

You order Geritol on the rocks.

You sink your teeth into a thick steak and they stay there.

You feel like the morning after and you haven't been anywhere.

You sit down in a rocking chair and you can't get it started.

Your pacemaker opens the garage door whenever a cute guy or gal goes by.

The only whistle you get is from a tea kettle.

You finally get it all together but can't remember where you put it.

You pray for a good prune juice harvest.
